1st Usurpation of king

i don't own any FSN, or Campione!

shiro pov

"I won't let you climb up from that hole, even if i had to cut of my own arm!" I yelled to the kings of heroes. Who's trying to climb of the the ripple hole came from the tainted Holy grail.

"Damm you Mongrel!" He pulled his chain and trying to drag hiss melted body from the blacken hole "Damm you!" He yelled again.

"I have no intention to die, so stay right there at least until i climb out of this hole!" He spoke to me as if i'm a rock pillar for him to climb out from his death. NO way in hell, NO way, i won't let him climb out, Never!

"Tohsaka, i'm so sorry" i've made my resolve, i'll protect everyone even if it cost my very life. I grit my teeth and take a deep breath. "Trace on" It's hurt, it's hurt, it's hurt, it's hurt. My magic circuit screamed, and scrambled. It's my very last drop of my mana. I reinforce my self to my utmost limit.

"Arrrrrrrrrrrrrrrrrrrrrrrr!" i dashed with a speed that passed human's limit.

"Fool, you filthy faker!" he screamed at me.

A mud, a mud, a mud it covered my eyes, my ears, and trying to consume my every soul. But i can grab him, i know where he is, and i'll kill him before he can make it out "Trace on" CRACK, a sound ringing in my head yes this is my last projection a knife, it's a small and fragile, but it's fine. I can kill him with this he's in my hand now. I'll kill him for sure this time. i'll make sure he'll die.

"Die, Gilgamesh!" i drove my knife to his chest, i can't see, i can't hear, but i can kill him. I feel the sensation of my knife cut through his chest, a sensation of a knife pressed in to his chest, deeper, deeper, deeper!

"XXXXXXX XXXXXXX XXXXXX" i can't hear it,is it his roar of anger or a voice of pity? For me right now, it's like a useless noise. The mud's starting to invade his body now his circuit is gone, he feels something burning inside his body. The reinforcement that enhancing his body's slowly fading away everything poured inside his soul. He's hearing a scream of anguish, a rage, a hatred of humanity, but i can't back of right now, if i back off everyone will die, i can't let that happen "AAAAAAAARRRRGGGGGGGGGG!" i pressed my arm, deeper, deeper, deeper.

A feeling of warmth touches my face, a warmth of blood.

"I shall grant you this" a calm voice reached to my ears, how can it be? I lost my senses of sight and hearing, but why i can see his face. "I accept my lost, you did well" a smile on his face, an eye that locking on me "You are the winner, take it all" he just told me what? "Till the day we fight each other again, hone your skills" a golden flash through my face, a world filled with mud blasted away by golden brilliant light

â€¦.

Gilgamesh pov

"Die Gilgamesh!" a scream from the boy who's nothing but a dead man walking. Why he tries to challenge him? Why he lost to this kid? I can't understand. I walk on the path of supremacy for my whole life. How this kid not even twenties manage to win against him?

"what is your goal faker?" I asked him. I can't understand him. HIs body is being invaded by the mud, but he still uses his remaining strength thrust a small knife that can't kill even a weakest servant. Such a foolishness faker, but it's very interesting. i've decided he remembered a long forgotten ritual of that wrecked witch 'Pandora' due being melt with the grail half of him worth equal to 1 heroic spirit, and what grail require is 7 spirits to reach the root. he's now connect to the throne of heroes. Yes, right now he himself is TRUE 'Gilgamesh' he's no longer a fake created from the grail. he's now his trueself. He can survive this humiliation and becomes even stronger, but i won't do that.

"It's your win faker, no Emiya Shirou" this feeling is exactly like when he fight his only friend 'Enkidu' Such a nostalgic feelings. it's my lost like he told him before

"I shall grant you this" a feeling of his body's starting to break from a flesh form into a sum of magical energy

"I accept my lost, you did well" a power that even more than himself as a servant form or real body form.

"You are the winner, take it all" a feelings of my conscious start to whiten

"Till the day we fight each other again, hone your skills" But he has no regrets, they will fight with each other again.

he closed his eye and dissolve himself and walk into the very soul of Emiya Shirou

He found himself in a white area without any color, so the ritual is complete. He's now being extracted his power from himself, he feels a content inside his soul was pulled out, but only a part of it.

"i never expect to see you here King" a small voice of a young child

"So you are here in front of my divine present be glad that i won't behead you foul witch" He's now in front of a witch who claim to be a goddess, and created the greatest insult to the god 'Circle of usurpation' a ritual that can change a human being that equal to an insect for us into a being that equal to the god and him.

"Mongrel, I have an order for you" But for the one who can slain him deserve a better reward than a single piece of his soul

â€¦.

Tohsaka pov

"This is my last drop of mana, so destroy it saber!" i just used my last command spell, this is the last, my final and last drop of my mana

"EXCALIBUR" her small figure slashed the golden blade, then the surrounding near me was swallowed by a light. The light that i've never seen before, it filled with warmth and strong. The grail's gone right now she found herself sitting on the grass field that has a brilliant golden aura flying on the sky.

"So beautiful" a words came out from her mouth, she's dazzling by the light from the lake, but she can't just sit like an idiot. I ran out to the figure in front of the lake. My hand touched Saber's arm, i can't let her disappear, i'll keep her, i'll bind her. I wont let her disappear, Me, Saber, and shirou will be together, if i let her disappear right now that jerk face is going to be angry at me for sure, i don't want that.

"let's go home together, Saber" i smile with my remaining strength.

"Yes, let's go home together, Rin" a semi disappearing servant's smiling at me. Yes, let's go see our most important person together.

The famillar contract has ben established.

Shirou pov

I'm floating, this place has nothing but void. I can't see anything, i can't hear any thing, i can't sense anything, i can't even feel myself. This place is gray, is this is afterlife, is it afterlife, is it my end.

"Hohohoho, you did good, you know?" a voice, a sweet voice reached my ears

"I did what?" I asked her. I feel sleepy, so can't understand what happen

"you manage to slay a god a being that human can't even compete with, you know?" her voice filled with with cheerful emotion. But wait? I did what?

"Yeah!, you really slay him. There's a lot of god i know, but to be him it quite impressive feat for human" ah! her face right now is so funny, i let a little smile out.

"Mou! don't smile at me like your mother like that" she start to make an even funnier face than before

"But he asked me to give his all to you, so i've no choice you know" she talked with an unpleasant face.

"to be honest, i don't like this at all. This isn't fair for other kids at all" i don't understand what she said at all "But it's his wish, so can't just ignored it.

" i think she's like something he knew, but he can't remember

"But he's to big for your mortal body, so i have to rearrange something before i put it into your body, okay?" she clapped her hand, and then a golden aura came out from my body. It burst into a thousand piece around me. I really feel sleepy right now, i don't know why, but i ..an'tâ€¦eveâ€¦.eepâ€¦.yâ€¦yes..pen.

"I need to redo something with you soul too, so please relax on your mommy lap" Ah i remember now, she's really like Fuji-nee. Then i feel like something press into my chest, and rob my conscious

"And right now, You'll be my 8th son, the 8th Campione!"

â€¦.

Pandora *pov

"well, do you like my work King?" i told him with a confident feeling in my work "Yes, you may have my thanks witch, be proud that you have a chance to service me!" he's arrogant as ever. I don't like to talk to him at all.

"Why you let him have all of your power King?" i asked that golden sparkle guy in front of me. Who's right now in the process of disappearing.

"I didn't give him any, but he take it by his own strength" Well, that's true, she can't denied this either.

"But you know you might have kill him. No, mortal can received a 100% of divine authorities like that, even my circle of usurpation can't guarantee his safety" Bah, I don't want to lose my youngest kid even before his birth you know?

"Hah, i'm sure that he cant take it" Whoa, how can he has that much confident in himself this much.

"Well, before your depart, why don't you give him your blessing?"

"Very well, Emiya Shirou, You conquered me as a king. I shall give you all my treasure, my power, and my most precious things that you can't even have a chance to look at it"

I really want to know did someone smack his head so hard when he was a child? I really cant take this guy

"You shall carried on my name as a true king and only king! till the day i returned and reclaim that title just you wait!" a blazing gold light emitted from his body, and then King of heroes disappeared with out any trace.

"FINALLY!" I yelled without second though, i really hate that guy.

"Well, Shirou, mommy pray for your luck" i smacked my hand into his chest, and insert all the essence of Gilgamesh into his body. Normally, Campione can only have one authorities, or various authorities with a limiter such as harsh condition, weaken power, and damage dealt to their body. Because they still have a mortal parts and can't control divine authorities inside their body. But this time she did insert all of divinity that Gilgamesh has into his body. It's a very dangerous process, but it seems like he can survive if it has a limiter on it, so she put a condition in to his authorities to preserve his life.

"It seems like your body has a very good place to put your new found power in it you know?" yes, that's why she rearrange his souls. She dump all Gilgamesh power into his inner world, and mixed it together.

""Haha, it's finished, you're safe shirou" a golden aura started to fade in to young's body, he has some change on his body. His hair has little gold highlight, and he's quite taller than before his hight became 180 cm, more muscular, and little tan on his skin due to a suddenly overloaded magic circuit from putting a foreign things into his inner world.

"Before you go, Mama will give you her good luck kiss then" i promptly kiss on his forehead.

"Bye,bye shirou!" i pray for my youngest son to have a save trip.

â€¦.

Tohsaka *pov

I walk on the ground that has a crack like explosion erupted from the underground.

"Hey, Emiya-kun!" i called him. Where is he? This is not funny at all, we aren't in the mood of playing hide and seek right now.

"Saber, did you see that jerk face" i asked Saber, if she found that guy? i really don't like this, really are you going to do this huh? I put that guy on a curse that would force him down on bed for 1 month for sure.

"Rin!" i heard Saber voice. What is it? Did she find him?

"What is it Saber?" I walk through the ruin that used to be called '_Ryudo temple_'. It's not right why? Saber destroyed the grail, but the hole still open, and i don't have enough energy anymore.

"SABER !" No, it can't be. Don't tell me the grail consumed shirou as a core when Saber was destroying it's body.

"Haaaaaaaaaaa" A burst from the floor. Saber tries to reaches the hole as soon as possible, but it's shrinking right now this is our only chance. Come on!

â€¦

Saber pov

NO, this can't be, i won't allow it. You can't die like this shirou. After, witness his battle with his ideals, she wished to watch his future, and seek an answer for herself. She's bitting her lips from frustration while dashing to the hole of holy grail.

"Haaaaaaaaaaa" I can't think other than rescue her master, he's the one whom she accept as her master. I will save you shirou. We still have our promise aren't we.

"I saw it!" Shirou wait for me!. The hole that even smaller than a palm of hand, she saw him a young man face. I can use invisible air to open up the hole, and take shirou out.

Before the blade reaches the hole, it's gone

"NOOOOOO!" She can't make it. Why even she swear to protect him, she left him to die.

Her knees dropped on the floor. Her lips bleeding, but she can't feel the pain right now it's only rage to herself and powerless in her power. She left him to die, she left him to die, she left him to die!

"Why it has to happen again?" She killed her old friend in the last war, and now what? Let her most important person to die? I can't accept it, it has to hd a way to save him. It has to

â€¦

Tohsaka POV

"Why this happen again?" a tear's falling down from Saber face. She's now catching the information from her servant. No, it can't be that jerk face won't die that easily, even if she killed him, he won't die.

"Saber" a voice came out from her throat. She tried to pat saber shoulder, but she has no energy left. A tears falling out from her eyes. A feelings gushing out from her heart a rage? A pain? it's exactly the same as her feelings, when she lost her father.

"I don't like this Emiya-kun" This is the second time Tohsaka Rin felt powerless.

2. Chapter 2

1st ARC wolf cry

2nd Town of void, and roaring wolf part 1

I don't own any F/SN or Campione!

â€”

Shirou POV

I walk to a small town, this town is quite simple, and a little bit weird, because there's a car that he never seen before. It's not an antique car, but instead a new car a type that he never seen before.

"Ah, it seems like i came to a weird place" I talked to myself, and walk in to the village, but there's almost no one here, is it abandoned. No, it can't be the car is still pretty new.

"Hello, are there's anyone here?" i knocked the door, but no answer. I keep walking for quite a while, and then-

"STOP!" someone yelled at me, Holy crap! A shotgun, a fucking shotgun!

"Who the hell are you" he asked me while aiming a shotgun at my back. He's speaking in english, is it a foreigner village?

"Sorrie, ore-â€¦ummm..Iâ€¦name i..sssâ€¦.Emiya Shirou" i spoke with my broken english, man where the hell am i.

"Are you japanese?" he asked me, well i'm not good a english, but at least i could understand him. He lowered his shotgun down. Phew, I thought i'm going to die.

"Why are you here? Are you going here to rob my house?" He speak to me in english, but i understand him? Aren't my english is C-, even Fuji-nee is mocking me about this.

"No, i just lost" i told him the truth

"Well, standing here is not helping anyway, let's get inside" he invited me into his house. When I look at his house, i found it isn't japanese for sure, It is western, but I don't know this feeling gushing inside my guts.

"Sit down" He's dragging a chair to of nowhere. I sat down, and looking into his face. Yep, definitely not japanese. He has a facial structure of caucasian, he has a silver hair, a place blue eyes, and a bread. Overall, he's handsome.

"Where are we?" i asked him.

"This place called 'Bright wolf'

"WHAT!" No,no,no,no. It can't be, last thing I remember is being dragged down in to the grail.

"So, where are we?" i asked him

"This place is United Kingdom" Now, I can't stop myself from gaping like a fish, no way! It can't be he was in Fuyuki, for at least 40 minutes ago.

"Are you okay kid?" He asked me with a worrying expression.

I covered my face with my right hand, trying to think what just happened? He fought Gilgamesh, and then â€¦ then what? I can't remember, what just happened? My memory is confusing,

A buzzing noise inside of my head. Tohsaka and Saber what happen to them? Is it time slipped or something.

"Mrâ€¦errâ€¦what's your name?" I asked him with a perfect English, Fuji-nee is going to be crying for sure, if she saw me speaking like this.

"Glen, just Glen" well he told me his name. I'll ask him some question then.

"What year is it?" Yeah, It's a stupid question, but i've no choice.

"2012" Huh? I think i heard something amazing! Whoa, whoa whoa

" do you have a computer?" I asked him, well it isn't a good question to ask, but i've no choice right now.

"Are you really sure you don't want to go to the hospital kid?" It wold be nice, but i'll pass

"No, i don't have time for that. please tell me where is you computer?" I asked him again, with a little bit of hurrying tone.

"Ummm, I don't know if it okay to let you use, but it's on the back" i dashed without listening to his response.

â€”

"Are you finish? Kid" He asked me

"Yeah, I finished" Right now, I'm leaning on the wall, with both of my face covered by my hand. It's a dream right? No city called Fuyuki or Homurahara Academy. I can't think it into other things. How can it be? Did the grail just dumped him into an another world!?

"I was so fucked up right now" Yeah, nothing better than that to describe my situation right now. I lost in oblivion right now. I've no money, no passport or any other things essential for living.

I need to think what I can do. Does this world has something like mage association? So that he could go and ask for their help.

"Kid, Dinner is ready" I heard him, then i drag my body to the table made out of wood.

"Well, You appeared out of nowhere, so i'll let you stay at my house till you can find your way out then" He gave me a plate filled with mash potato and roasted pork. I'm hungry right now, so i finished it even before Glen starts his own.

"Man, You are a monster are you?" He's mocking me right now for sure, but it can't be help right. After you survived from that bloody war, and being dragged into a different world. It's exhausting, very exhausting.

"After, You finished your plates, go take a shower, and go to bed" That's a very good idea. I'm so tired, and my cloth are ragged from that guy's storm of blade.

"You look like a beggar, you know" Well, He's telling the truth.

"Thanks for dinner " I thanked him from the bottom of my heart.

"No worries, I can't let you stay outside anyway, and call me Glen" An old man talked to me as if i'm his friend.

â€”

Glen POV

Such a weird kid. He appeared out of nowhere, but he has no dangerous aura. A red and blond hair, he's taller than me, and with his stance. I'm quite sure that he known to fight. While he's gone I took out a silver powder, and scrub it on his side of the table. He wait for 1 minutes and a half, but there's no reaction, so he's not 'it' huh?

"I think i should watch him for a little longer" He cleaned his side of table, a silver powder vaporize in the air. Without any evidence left Glen started to clear the table.

"I'll keep that kid then, he might have a clue to 'it'" He's planning to surveillance a boy, whom he met today.

â€”

Shiro POV

"What the fuck!" i'm looking at myself on the mirror. A golden highlight, a little bit tanned, a reddish gold eyes. How? I can't notice this change, because i'm so confused for what happen before, but this! It can't be don't tell me the grail mixed me with that guy!

"Are you okay, lad?" Glen yell form downstairs.

"Nâ€¦no, it's nothing" I told him, but nothing? No, itâ€¦it impossible.

"It looks like me fusion with that guy and Archer" it's not funny at all, now will Tohsaka remember him? Will saber slash me when we met. But i can't take anything right now. I really need to go to bed first.

â€”

I'm walking on the hill of sword, I know this place, this is my reality marble 'Unlimited Blade Work'. Something is different, it's different, a world of sword, a hill filled with iron breeze, but this is to different. This isn't a hill of sword he knows. I can't comprehend, all i could see is gold. It used to be a normal rock ground. It's a gold even a sky is gold, a golden particle surround me, and swirl around me as if it's going to enter my body. I can see a weapons, a blazing gold weapon, a blades, a knives, a lances, a mace, a hammer, a staff, an arrows, and a shields, it's different the weapon is real not like a fake one that it used to be. I grabbed on a twins sword, the blade that stuck the ground, pull it out, a blazing light reached through my eyes.

â€”

"What a weird dream" I woke up, it feels like the world is spinning right now. I can't understand what happen to me, or why my very own inner world was altered?

"Hey, KID!" a roar from downstairs. such a loud old man. I covered my eyes with my hand and rubbing my forehead.

"Wait a sec, Old man" I answer him. I closed my eyes, concentrate my conscious.

"Structural analyze" i opened my circuit. Checking my whole body, my body is healthy, no abnormal status on my body. But I found other change on my body a magic circuits increased immensely, it's impossible, there's no way to change magic circuit quality and quantity. I can't imagine how Tohsaka will drop kick on my face, if she knew what happen to him.

"Are you done? Lad!" He's yelling again

"Okay, I'm done, i need a sec!" I dashed out from my bed, and change of my cloth. I ran down to the downstairs, and see him standing out in front of the table.

"Breakfast is ready" he hand me my plate, it's a 2 sunny side up, a bacon. a sausage. I smelled it. It's the best for me right now my body is trembling from hunger.

"It so good!" I told him with 100% truth, i'm talking while swallowing, it right now, a juicy bacon and sausage mixed with the egg.

"By the way is there's anything, that I can help?" I asked him with an urge to do something, I can't be just a freeloader at someone house. But i don't know what i can do, so i asked him.

"I can fix anything" Well, it times for my old hobbies to work, a light bulb, a fan, or a tv. I can take all just come at me!

"Can you fixed my TV?" He told me with a boring 's fine at least, i'll have something to do then.

"Where is it? Where's your tv"

"It's in a living room" I got the information, right now my body's ready to do some work. I also want to do some work out, maybe i can ask him to go outside after i finish with his TV. I walk to the living room, and there is it. A tv an old one, but i'm quite confident in my skill anyway. "Let's get start!"

â€”

1 hour later

"Hey, Glen I finished" I told him while he's walking with his shotgun around the town, Why he has to hold on to this shot gun all the time? I can't understand him at all, may be i'll ask him later then. 'kr kr kr' a sound came from my back while i'm stretching from sitting on the same spot for 1 hour

"I feel refreshed!" My back is very light right now, and now i really need tome my body, i think, i'll go for a walk then.

"Hey. Hey old man, I'll go for a walk!" I told him while jumping from my sitting spot.

"Fine, but be careful. There's something weird happen recently" I heard his warning, while grabbing a borrowed coat, and walking to the front door. What a nice breeze, a sensation that different than Fuyuki cold wind, or a wind of steel inside his reality marble. I'm walking along the nice breeze that hit my face gently. I look at the street that has no car or other people this is weird i'm thinking while walking along the street.

â€”

Glen POV

That kid is not a normal kid for sure. He's thinking about the possibility that the is a mage, but what he saw is to different. That isn't normal. His theories about the boy is true, he is a mage, but he used no divine word to use any magic.

"I don't really have to prepare for the worst case scenario, huh" At least the boy can protect himself from 'it', for sure. This is the reason why he let the boy go for a walk in this town.

"If he suvived, i'll ask for his help then" A smile came out from his mouth

But before he can finish what he's thinking right now a black shadow appeared on his back and then.

â€”

Shirou POV

This town is weird. I can't find anyone here, it empty no one is on this town. I thinking while, i'm-

'BOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOM'

"Whâ€¦.!" An evil giant wolf's charging at me with an abnormal speed, I can't register the thing that right now is charging at me with a speed that even on par with berserker!

"Trace ON!" I pulled out a twin sword from my reality marble. 'crash!' a claw from that giant wolf clash on my sword. "Arggggg!" It send me flying "BooOooM" i'm rolling right now, my face hit the floor, my body twisted, and then I crashed on a house.

"ARRRRRRRRRRRRRRR" It's roaring at me. Why it attack me? But no time to think any more. "Set, Reinforce" I opened my circuit, then let the od flew into my limbs, more,more,more. I dash with all of my strength 'Swoooosh' A claw missed my body, I landed down on the wall near it 'Whoommm' I dashed again, a wall exploded, by my legs strength. I slashed its left leg out 'Slashsssss' a blood splashed on my face. "Roll Bullet " I randomly project my blade "Set speed" I lock my gaze at the giant wolf. "All projection spin" to increase my projection weapon fire power, all my blade right now is spinning in a very high speed. "All FIRE!" Released my mental trigger all projection aim in to the wolf's face, a neck, a chest, a right leg , and a stifle. 'DOOOOOOOOOOOOOM' all of my sword squash all of its limbs.

"What the hell is that!?" I start to lower my weapons, but my instinct is screaming, 'FHOOOOOWWW' a deformed claws trying to hit my head, but my body reflected it before it hit my head, "Over edge right" I explode kanshou on my right hand to a cracked broad sword, it's piercing through. I commanded it to explode as a broken phantasm, and then i trace kanshou again "I won't let youâ€¦..ESCAPE!" I jump and prepare my married blade "Over Edge" I thrusted both sword deep into Its throat, i cut of its neck.

"AAAAAAAAAAA!" i let the Od pass through my magic circuit more, cut it, cut it, cut it. Finally, the wolf's head hitting the ground.

"ha,ha,ha" i'm painting from the fight, but i don't have time to care for that. I prepare my projection "Trueâ€¦" Without thinking I let my voice came out from my mouth without paying any attention "Trace" Something running through my Circuit , a golden blade appears on my back "Set, Fire" it flew to the wolf head 'Kabooooom' it exploded without any flaw a golden light engulf the wolf body.

"What is that?" I don't understand, I haven't overload that blade to be a broken phantasm, and he doesn't have enough time. Glen, what happen to him right now?

â€”

XXXXXXXXXXXXXX POV

It can't kill 'it' but it'll fine a proper opportunity to kill 'it' But right now it has to return to its master. He'll heal it for it to return again, and consume what it need to be consume. Then It'll return to its true from at once in a millennium year. It will be powerful and strong and it will rip that Godslayer apart and consume his body without any trace left.

â€”

Shirou POV

"GLEN, GLEN, GLEN!" I'm yelling his name, where is he? I need a proper answer for his question, first, what is that wolf, second, what happen to this city? I'm running while using my reinforcement on my legs, it's so weird my Od kept coming out like he has a pool of Mana inside his body.

"Where is he!?" I screamed out of frustration, if he died i won't forgive myself for sure. Emiya Shirou is the existence that live to be a hero, so he will save everyone he could, even if it cost for his life.

"Found you!" He looked at the old man on the ground drown in a pool of blood. NO, It can't be I won't let him die

"Glen!" he's dying his throat were ripped of and some parts of his chest also suffered a fatal wound. "Trace on" I scanned through his body a 3 broken ribs and also piercing his lungs, he's suffering a blood loss right now. Dammit, i don't know how to heal the old man from his fatal wounds 'lubâ€¦lub' something came out from the dept of his soul

"True Trace" suddenly a bottle filled with a golden nectar appeared on his hand 'Potion of pheonix' a potion that can heal any wound without any scar left. How can he know about this information, but only thing he knew is it can save a person right now dying in front of him

"Drink this Glen" No answer form the old man, so he has no choice but to pour this in to his mouth. A light appeared from his wound, then the wound disappear.

Talking corner

First off,I want to change something about shirou authorities

True Trace - Soul of Babylon

It will allow shirou to access a treasury that mixed with his 'Unlimited blade work'  but there is some noble phantasm that has no place inside Gate of Babylon, because some noble phantasm like kanshou and byakuya weren't store in Gate of Babylon due to their creation after the death of Gilgamesh. He can create a perfect copy due to the same way he traced Avalon, because it record to his very soul. It has nothing to do with his structural graph. He'll pay a projection unit for 25 unit per 1 projection. And he can sympathize weapon and use all of it technique like an actual owner. Shirou can also trace such a potion of youth or vimana. Because it resides in Gate of Babylon

condition to use

1 if he wants to place a strength of original owner on his own body, he has to add 2 times of magical energy and taxed a lot of mental stress, the pain will increase if the rank of Noble phantasm increase

2. Enuma Elish - sword of rupture

-Awaken a sword that pass through the realm of human. The sword that cuts through the world and the regalia of supreme. i command you to bow for this sword and die. I shall release the wind that tear through heaven and earth 'Enuma Elish'

He can use this sword as powerful as Gilgamesh, but he can only use it 1 time before he exhausted his magic reserve, and the authorities reshaped itself for shirou, so it can change to any form shirou prefers.

condition to use

He has to be injured to the point of almost dead, and it can bypass a healing authorities such as Godou's ram or voban authorities

He has to wait 24 hours before using it again **

while using this he can't trace other noble phantasm

3. Enkidu - chains of heaven

"O chains of heaven the one that bind even a mighty bull"

"bind it, seal it"

"Through the realm of god i shall bind you the transcended one, you shall be seal before my eyes, now bow to the almighty true king"

This chain can bind any kind of divinity. It works the best on divine beast, divine ancestor, heretic god, campions avatar that created from authorities such as Luo Hao's too giant or Alec's thunder form and campione. it can be use with EA, it's a favor noble phantasm of Gilgamesh, so i want it to be a separate authorities, and it also not let shirou be to OP (It won't fun right if shirou just bind his enemy, and the kill it without any hardship)

condition to use

When he use it, it will place a heavy toll on his mental, and physical. Because this chain has a will on its own so shirou has to force to do what he want.

due to this he can't trace any weapons, but weapon that's already traced won't fade a way

It consumes magical energy to 100 per minutes

How are you this is chapter 2 from 1st Arc of Soul of Babylon. I'll explain you a few things, due to nasuverse it has no concept of god or campions, so shirou can't understand what happened to his body at least until the very end of this arc or first chapter of the second arc. And there's some review told that shirou can use other magecraft that's not five great elements such as bounded field or alchemy, other than reinforcement and projection. I know but we have to remember that this shirou has a very small knowledge of magecraft, so he has no access to any other than structural graph, reinforcement, and projection. His appearance that changed, because he was inserted 100% of Gilgamesh not a part of his soul, so basically he's a human fusion with god through a circle of usurpation like the campions. And i think if Gilgamesh is here, he might want Shirou to be called kingslayer more than godslayer for sure. But i'll stick with godslayer then hahahahaha. Also Glen doesn't aware of the fact that shirou is a Campione.

ps. i want to ask you all a question do you want a longer episode, but take a little bit longer than short episode that take a little shorter time to write **

3. Chapter 3

3rd Town of void, and roaring wolf part 2

I don't own any F/SN or Campione!

Spoilers

I want to talk about Shirou crimson gold circuits. I've got an idea from Gilgamesh's tattoo. I've read it on wiki that when he uses his full power to annihilating Avenger's shadow. He shows a red tattoo that it never appeared before, so I'll use that concept as how shirou will use his authorities 'True Trace' through his new magic circuit, but I also upgrade his original circuit to the point of Blue blood magic circuit. His crimson Gold circuit has no use for other magic .

Some review told me that I nerf Enkidu. But as a new Campione he still has to learn how to control his authorities like Godou learning to control his 10 Avatars. After the story progress He'll have a better control over time. And some condition will be removed. **

I gave Shirou only E on Str and Agi, because he has no boost on physical ability like heaven's feel Shirou, and Godou without any physical boost avatar such as bull, camel, and raptor never shows superhuman strength.

change from Glen to Glenn All things that Gil owns is noble phantasm right? Please send an idea of noble phantasm to me. I really want everyone idea. A concept of 'Trace On' and 'True Trace' is different the first one is only for shirou to project his copy noble phantasm, using a reinforcement, and using structural graph. Second one is for shirou to find and locate the prototype of noble phantasm in Gate of Babylon that fused with his reality marble and recreated it by gathering its information that resides in his inner world and let it flow through a special magic circuit, and projected it through projection. During this fanfic, I'll let shirou use 'Trace On' as a main, and 'True Trace' for when he want to use a powerful noble phantasm and something that's not a weapon or defensive armament. No saber = No Avalon's healing factor. I have no idea where to find a beta.

 Glenn POV

"If he survived, i'll ask for his help then" I finally found someone other than me. He can't remember that day well, but all he can hear is a roaring sound of a Silver wolf, He knew it was something that human can't even hope to beat. But He shot it before he passed out, a silver bullet that passed through his mage family, this is what He can remember. His name 'Glenn' and he has to kill the wolf. He can't walk out from this city, but somehow the town was restored, foods keep replenishing, and internet still connected. Everyone in this town is the only thing that disappear. It likes everything was a dream. I can't accept that. I'll kill that wolf and finally escape from this city.

"â–„â–…â–…â–‚â–ƒâ–„â–„â–…" A roar that can't even he can comprehend, a feeling deep down that craved into his core. It's here! All of his muscle tensed. But I can't back of right now. He jumped as soon as possible, and flip his body back to aim a shotgun that contained a silver bullet inside.

"I got you!" But before I can shot, It's gone. 'SPLASH' A feeling of warm water touched his face, and his body was ended flying away.

"Hssssss..sss" he can't speak, his broken rib cage's piercing his lungs, a shadow that attacked him is chewing his flesh, a blood dripping from its mouth, before his consciousness faded away. He saw something that he can't even believe his own eyes.

"â–„â–…â–„â–…â–‚â–‚â–„â–…â–„â–…â–‚â–‚â–ƒâ–ƒâ–„â–„â–…â–…" A roar is louder than even before. The shadow around it's changing a flame like shadow became a fur, a human body's starting to changed into a wolf, but before that he saw something, something that make his eye widen, his chest hurts a flame like feelings gushing out from his right side of chest, then his consciousness fade away.

â€”

Shirou POV

Right now, I'm sitting in front of Glenn's bed room. He still sleeping, but I'm already healed his wound, so It should be okay for now. What just happened? When I fought that wolf, are there's more than one enemy? Are there's any in the house right now? No, it's impossible. I perform a structure analyzed all over the house, there's no enemy in this house. But right now He has lot of question but no answer. He's thinking about what happen today. Glenn was assault by an enemy, and finally 'True Trace' It is the thing that bug him most. A technique that not his usual 'Trace On' this one is far more easier, but He never use this technique before.

"Trace On" He's controlling prana and let it flows through his magic circuit. He's pulling his sword out of his reality marble 'Gram' A sword of heroic spirit Siegfried. Yes, he can sympathize with it.

"True Trace" A spell word that he never used it before, but It came out so smoothly like He knew this word since, the day He was born in to this world. Prana ran through the unusual circuit, a crimson-gold circuit suddenly appeared on his arm and his hand. It's bigger than normal circuit. His tracing is not a blue light particle formed into a shape of sword, but golden instead. A same sword, but the different is this sword is real, compared to the sword on his left hand, its look like a day and night in terms of aura and beauty.

"Isn't that?" Yes, what He's thinking right now is 'I saw this before, but where' It's not from Archer's memory, but from his very own eyes. Yes, This came from the fight in his reality marble with King of Heroes, Gilgamesh.

"Ah? Don't tell me that's why my appearance was changed" Yeah, definitely right. The grail probably mixed him with a remaining of Gilgamesh. If that is true, I hope at least, it won't have any effect on my personality, to be honest I don't want to have that kind of over-extremely arrogant attitude, but he can't refuse the fact that this power is very useful to him.

"What a pain" I spoke with a lifeless sound

"Arrgggg!" A scream came from the room, I rushed in to the room, but found only Glenn who's grabbing his chest while having a painful expression on his face. Dammit, I don't really know what to do, but having 'Potion of Phoenix' all of his injuries is already gone.

"AHHHHHH!" Glenn jumped from the bed while panting, may be he has a bad dream, but I can't just let him freak out like this, so I made a tea prepare for a situation like this anyway.

"Drink this, It'll help you feel better" I gave him a small cup of earl gray, I don't have that much knowledge to brew an English tea, but it's a pretty decent one. He started to drink the tea i gave him, and calm down for a little bit.

"Thanks, Kid" He finally stop panting, his face looks pale compare to his normally lively face before. What just happen is that just a normal bad dream? But it isn't my business to ask anyway. I also don't have any intention to ask that question either, so i'll ask about what happen today then.

"Glenn, I want to ask you something" I asked him, which question should I use first? A wolf or how he get his wound. But I probably want to ask about his wound first. So that I can perceive an enemy other's than that Wolf.

"Glenn, I know you still tired, but could you tell me what happen? " I asked him. His face's even paler than before, what just happen to him?

"Leave me alone" I asked me to leave the room? I can't do that. I can't let that wolf to rampage around like this anymore. I need to take care of it as soon as possible.

"Bu-"

"Leave me alone!" He yelled at me like a kid

"Glenn" I speak to him with a softer voice.

"Leave me right now please" He speak to me while using his hand to cover his face, so I have no choice but to leave a room.

â€”

Glenn POV

'Emilia, Alexis!' A man's yelling. His face's showing a horrid expression, while clinging to his wife and daughter remaining. A flame burst through out the city, everything is falling apart. 'Szzzzz' A buzzing noise, my vision is blurry. What happen? Why he never know something like this happen to?

'Grrrrrrrr' Wolf is coming. He knew what will happen next. He'll shot the silver bullet. 'Zhaaaa' Again a buzzing noise shock through his nerves.

'Bang' A bullet was shot, then the wolf will escape, but it isn't right.

'Graaaaaaaaaaaaaaaa' The wolf is roaring, it's pinning me down with its front leg. No, no, no, no this isn't right. It should be gone by now. The wolf opened its mouth, and consumed him

â€”

"AHHHHHH!" i scream like never before in my life. What just happen? I don't understand this feeling an unease feeling's gushing from his guts, it makes me want to puke out right now. A cold sweat on my face, a trembling legs. Then I saw a kid. He has a worrying expression on his face. Who is he? He has a red-blond hair and red gold eyes. No, My memory is a mess right now. Who is he? I search through my memory. 'Emiya Shirou' An unknown mage, finally his memory start to resurface.

"Drink this it will help you feel better" He gave me a cup of tea, a smell of it helps relieved ,ybut somehow I can't feel any easier that i'm right now. But he feels grateful to the boy

"Thanks, Kid"

"Glenn, I want to ask you something" A question? I can't understand what are the boy's talking about.

"I know you still tired, but could you tell me what happen?" What happened to me? Why I'm on the bed? A feeling like burning rod inserted into my spine directly. I can't understand. Yesterday, I was scouting this empty town. 'â–„â–…â–…â–,â–ƒâ–„â–„â–…' Something popped up into his brain a feeling of my chest being ripped apart. A ribs were piercing my lungs. I was attacked by a shadow of that wolf!

"Leave me alone" I told him. I need a time. The boy's showing a worrying face for a while, but he seems to decide something. Why don't he just leave? I don't want to see his face right no just leave!

"Bu-"

"Leave me alone!" I can't control my anger, that pent up inside myself right now.

"Leave me right now please" I'm begging the boy to leave this room, I can't see anyone right now. His body leaves no scar, but his mind was worn tattered

"Glenn" The boy closed his eye. Then turn around ,and walking out of this room.

"How can I be so weak" I'm the only survivor from that night, I can't even remember my own last name or family or friends. I have to kill the wolf that's the only path he can live to atone for his sin for being a sole survivor, but now what? He almost got kill by that wolf. His only resolve to be alive was cracked. A things that's remain in this body is his name 'Glenn' magic technique, And a will to kill the wolf.

"Why can I just die?" A ten years, He has to live in this town alone. He never stops searching. Now he found it, but it can't even leave a scratch on its body. A seed of hopelessness germinated inside his soul.

â€”

Shirou POV

After, I leaved Glenn's room. I've decide to scout the town. It might be a chance that I can find an enemy. I walk for an hour, but nothing happen. I'm sitting on the bench in this empty park. A smell of grass and trees. A small breeze's touching my face, it'll help me access into the deepest part of my soul. I'll look into my reality marble and find out what happened. I start to exhale and inhale. A feeling of my magic circuit is turning on. I let my prana flown. 'Set the link' I focused on the hole inside my soul. I'll dive deeper a feeling of my very own soul is resisting me from getting inside

'Start a connection' A second later, I found myself walking in my inner world 'Unlimited bald works' I decided to looking around my soul to check what change that happened to his soul. A sky is like a night time. A golden particle's floating around like a star while emitting a light that shine through out the world, a ground is not a crumble dirt and sand anymore it's more like a golden solid ground. All of his weapons are covered with a golden aura. And, he saw something unbelievable there's other thing than weapons or defense armament, a golden like kitchen, a pile of golds and jewels is floating with a bottle filled with different color of nectar, and a thousands of book written in the language that human can't understand, and a plane like machine that flying like a bird in this world.

"Hey, isn't that?" On the center of this world, an armor, a brilliant golden armor is sitting on the throne. An armor that shouldn't be here. I blinked my eye and then the armor is in front of my vision. I touched it, a feeling of something gushing out from my deepest part of my soul. I think I want it to be more light, so that I can move around a little bit easier. After, that the armor is dematerialize and reforming 'What armor you are wishing for?' It can't speak, but I sensed it intention. 'I want an armor that light and fast like that guy' A red bow man, a knight who was betrayed by his own ideals. An image that buried deep down inside memory. 'Whooss' A gust of wind a golden stars is blazing around him. 'Then I shall grant your wish' An armor reacted with his wish and reformed. A heavy bulky golden armor is gone. Left only small and light looking armor. With a red line cross through out the armor. A golden cloak with a zigzag red line around the end's hanging down from the waist, It is a crossing between this armor and archer's armor.

â€”

"Trace On" i'm using reinforcement on my legs, and jumping on the roof of the building to other building right now. After, I finished looking inside my inner world. I also want to check a change that occurred with my actual body too.

"There" I landed on a 5 stories buildings. I checked my body. Are there's any wound on my leg's. His body should be break by the force when he landed on the building. His body also stronger? My stamina is full without any fatigue. I can even jump higher and run even faster that what I did.

"Trace On" I reinforce my eyes, and projected a bow. My eyes can see even a small rock from a 10 kilometers afar. I can reinforce it even better than before, i have an enormous magic energy that i can pour it into my eyes.

"Let's see how far can shoot" I simply project a normal arrow. I reinforced the arrow till it became beet red color.

"Hah" I pulled a string, and released it. 'Whoooooooossssssss' The arrow is being send. It's ripping the wind, and flying with an indescribable speed. 'Bang' a house was exploded like being shot by an RPG

"Whoa!" I received some of Archer's memory because the contact between them. When they were fighting, a fragment of his memory a technique of projection, his fighting style, and how he shoots the arrow. But this surpassed my expectation.

"Holy crap!" He just trying to measure the accuracy, but it bring down the house! A second later he found his eyes widen. A runes came from underground, and circle around the house. It's restoring the house. So, if in that case I can destroy it without any worry right!

"Trace On" I project more, i'm happy right now that i don't have to worry about the damage that might cost form this experiment. But I can't project a noble phantasms, because even the town can restore itself a blow from it might destroy the spell that casted on it.

â€”

"Phew" A 44 arrows he just shot was a normal reinforcement arrow. So, he decided to try looking for the arrow inside Gilgamesh treasury in his 'Unlimited blade works' finding a simple one without any extravagant aura or design. 'Found it!' He pull a single arrow from the ground and take it out through projection.

"True Trace" A golden arrow appeared in my hand. Even I try to find a simple one, but this still extravagant than some of his E-rank noble phantasm. I'm pulling a string right now, and then a golden aura is emitting from the arrow.

"Hah" I released the string, 'Dokan' Shit this is to powerful, my bow split in to a half after I shot it a speed that surpassed my strongest reinforcement arrow, an explosion from the arrow blown away the house that just restored after being destroyed for 44 times, and even destroyed the house near it.

" If that guy wasn't an arrogant prick. He can kill us all in one night" I'm so glad that, my enemy was an egoistic bastard who easily underestimate his enemy.

â€”

"What is that?" I notice something. A wolf is running, but this time It separated its body into a blazing shadow. They're trying to go to Glenn's house! I won't allow that.

"Trace On" A bow and 3 black arrows materialized on my hand, in a situation like this it might be better to use a 'True Trace' but he doesn't have enough time to think about that possibility. 'BANG' 'BANG' 'BANG' 3 arrows surpass a speed of normal arrow. I might not as good as Archer but for sure the shadow were crushed.

"I think Glenn is sure to have a very good answer for this." I exhale.

"I think I should deal with it soon before finding something to eat at the house" I decide to create 10 more arrows. A small grind, I'll bury you all. A red pillar was released from my bow 2 arrows per one shot. 'BANG' 'BANG' 'BANG' 'BANG' 'BANG' 'BANG' 'BANG' 'BANG' 'BANG' 'BANG' The arrows aren't powerful as it should be, well it can't be help anyway. He didn't have enough time to add a strongest reinforce into the arrow. It seems like the wolf still has a lot of option left.

A left over shadow is flying at me. 1, 2, 3 and 4 shadows is coming at me like a rocket.

I jump of the roof and free falling, while the shadow is coming for me I turn my body to face a shadow. And then "Set" I'll use something that has a power to destroy all the wolf's shadows at once. "True Trace" A red hound that will keep hunting my target. It's not a traced version, but a perfect prototype one "Hrunting" He altered the blade into the form he saw in Archer's memory. The prototype modified blade was send flying, but he didn't break it to be a broken phantasm, because it is real, his 'True Trace' provides him a perfect copy, so he doesn't have to use it as a broken phantasm, but I'll try it sometimes then. 4 red bullets hit the shadow with an incredible speed that's unparalleled. 'Kaboooooom' A red explosion filled my sight with a red light. I'm glad that I shot it into the sky, because the sheer destructive power can easily bring down a large portion of this city.

"Then, let's see" I landed on the ground the new pact of shadow wolf's dashing at the front and the back. I set my mind on both side."True Trace" Imagine a weapon that can destroy the enemy from front and back. A lightning that can annihilate everything "Vajra" I minimal the destructive force by pouring a very small amount of prank into the noble phantasm. 'RUMBLE' 'RUMBLE' A lightning came from the vajra, and annihilate all the shadows. I think, I'll probably stick in using 'Trace On' like before and 'True Trace' for a specific situation. "Trace On" I closed my eyes, and performing a Structural analyze from this point to the next 1 km there's no sign of enemy.

"Pheww, That's very tired " I think, I should go home, and make some dinner 'Grrrrrrrrrr' my stomach is roaring, and I'll ask Glenn what's going on too. He should be awake by now.

â€”

Glenn POV

"Hahhhhhh" Is that a dream? In his dream he felt like he was eaten by The wolf he drove away 10 years ago. After he asked the boy to leave his room, he felt fatigue and fall asleep. After he woke up he found himself having a glowing sigil on the right side of his chest, that's burning his chest from inside out.

"This feelings!" A wolf presences, his chest is burning a sigil on his chest it's glowing while releasing a something that even more than painful. It appeared on his chest after he was attacked by the wolf.

"Shit, What the fuck happened to my body" a flaming hot feeling from the sigil. It has a wolf like face and circled by rune.

"Arggggggg!" Right after experience a feeling of death in his dream. Now, he has to dealing with the feeling of burning iron inside his every cells.

"If.. is..a wolf then!" His soul was pulling out by something, I need to drink that, a silver powder diluted in the water. It's on the table, he needs it right now. 'Bang' He fall from his bed, then He's crawling on the floor. 'Fhsssss' A sound came from his right chest and burn his shirt out.

'GULP, GULP' He's drinking a silver potion without waiting. It instead of going to his stomach, it gathering to his left chest. 'Pshhhhhhh' something cold ran through his veins. It's gone, I can't understand what happen with me 'â–„â–…â–‚â–„â–…â–…â–…â–„â–„â–…' A second time his spine chilled out. A small black shadow. "You, can't escape from me" A voice came out. It's a voice of young man not the wolf.

"Who the hell are you?" I asked that mysterious voice.

"Tomorrow, You shall die, and be consumed" The answer with that's not what he want. Then the black shadow is shrinking, till it has nothing left.

"Arrgggggg" A sigil's glowing again, now it's to much. I can't take it. I lost my consciousness again. Before, he lost his conscious, he saw a word scratched under his sigil 'Tomorrow' and then it disappeared.

â€”

'Curse you' A voice

'You will die' A voice

'I'll never die by you hand' A voice

"My soul will bind you" A voice

"I'll destroy you one day" A voice

A voice of hatred and fear all over the black sky. I'm drowning into the sea of blood. My soul is disappearing. I'm trying to get up, but my hand is gone. All I can feel is a sensation of being boiled. Deeper, I'll drown deeper and deeper. I feel numb all over my body, at this rate i'll disappear.

"XXXXXXX"

""GlXXXXX"

Someone's calling, who is calling me?

"GXXXXX"

I can't hear you.

"WXXX Xp"

What are you telling me?

"XXXX up"

Why i have to do something that i can't understand?

"Wake up "

Wake up? Why do I have to wake up? I'm sleepy

"Glenn!"

What who's Glenn? My name is â–…â–…. No, something doesn't right, I'm â–…â–…. I should be called â–…â–… not Glenn. No, I am Glenn.

'I'll never die' A voice

'I'll aways â–„â–…â–„â–…â–…' A voice

A light came forth.

A warm golden light reached to the hole on the chest. And pulling him up from the sea of blood.

â€”

"Glenn wakes up!"

"Shirou?" I called his name out.

"Are you ok? What happened?" He has a worrying expression on his face. A funny one, I let a small laugh out

"That's not funny at all!" He speaks with irritation tone. Really? This guy is funny. But what just happen to me? I can't remember anything. Did I just faint again?

"How long since you return?" I asked him.

"20 minutes ago" He answer me with a monotone voice.

"Glenn, I fought the wolf before I came here" Huh? I can't believe what I'm hearing right now. How can this happened? While he slept like an idiot on the bed?

"Why don't you wake me up!" I grab his shirt, I know this is unreasonable, but for 10 fucking year I wait for this to happen, and now I can't do anything?

"Hey, you are sick! How can I let you fight?" It is none of your business to decide. I need to kill it even if it cost my life. If I can punch him right now I probably punch him on his worry face.

"Tell me all the detail" I order him. I'm trying to stand up, but I can't. I can't feel any strength left in my legs or my arms. My sense of touch is almost gone. I can't feel anything from my limbs. Then the boy gives me his support. My leg is powerless. Why I feel like my soul was sucked? I can't remember what happen, but somehow I feel like my body, is breaking from inside 'Buzzzzz' A vision from somewhere else. A jungle? A man with silver hair?

"urgg" I moaned, my head is hurt. I can't focus on the hallway.

"Glenn, I've something that I really want an answer" He told me that, he want to ask me a question. I think It is time to tell him what happen to this town and me. He's talking me to the table with a tea and soup prepared for him and his.

â€”

Shirou POV

I open the front door, and walk into the living room. It's dark in here, so I turn on a switch. The light bulb is glowing a light all over the house.

"Man, I'm so hungry" I really hungry from what happen before. A huge fight that left him feels a little bit tired, but it's nothing even though he fought like a servant. It should have kill him for spending a numerous amount of magical energy, and absurd amount of body destroying feats that reserved for servant such as free falling from the 5 stories building or jumping around between building to building. Tohsaka probably gonna freak out for sure. To think that I did something servant it made me really feel like that guy, because his appearance is Archer without white hair + blond highlight, also his fighting style today is Archer's. I really don't like this, to be honest merging with that sparkle servant is bad. Now, his appearance look like himself from the future. It's too sucks.

"Let's see what I can use." I'm looking for an ingredient to make a â€¦ um, I forgot to think what i'm going to make. Um, Glenn is sick, so I think, I should make him a food that easily to eat. I would have prefer miso, but since we are in a different country. I don't think, that I can make it.

"Mushrooms, onion, and chicken." Hmmmmmâ€¦ I think, I know what i'm going to make.

(10 minutes later)

"Glenn, Dinner is ready!" I yelled from downstairs, but no answer. I guess, he still sleeping. I think I should go wake him up. When, my foot touched the stairs, An overflowing magical energy came out from the upper floor. A malice energy same as the shadow wolf he fought, but this one is more tense. Shadow wolf might have a dangerous aura, but this is far more deeper and darker. Don't tell me the boss is here right now?

"Trace On" I projected a twin pair of sword. 'True Trace' I should have use that, but right now I need to minimal the damage that might happen. This swords are the best choice for the situation right now.

"Glenn!" I kick the door out of my way. Old man lay down on the floor with a glowing sigil on his chest, but no time for that, his presence is disappearing. I can't let that happen. I dematerialize the twin swords in my hand. A strong presence of magic is overflowing. A binding sigil? If it's in that case then I need another noble phantasm that can break any kind of magic. Yes, I have one in my arsenal a perfect one. A unique knife never meant for kill a living being, but to kill a magic.

"True Trace" A golden particle's forming above of my hand.

"Rule breaker" I thrust the knife in this chest. A resistance, a barrier? I can't thrust deeper, a wind of magical energy's gushing out from the sigil.

"Glenn!"

"Glenn!"

"Glenn!"

"Wake up!"

"Wake up!"

"Wake up!"

"Glenn!"

I kept calling him, if he died here. I can't stand that. I will save him. I will! I'm pouring more prana into the noble phantasm. Come on!

"Haaaaaaaaah" Gust of wind around the barrier is stronger, but i'll pierce deeper 'Kr' A crack 'Kr,kr' More crack. Good, I think while pouring more prana into the knife.

"Break! Dammit!" I thrust it with more power. 'Crack,Crack,Crack' Finally, it's breaking a knife edge stuck deep down into his sigil. But even rule breaker can't erase the wolf like sigil. It only stops the glowing from the wolf like sigil on Glenn's chest.

"Shirou?" Man, he really has a pale face right now, should I force him back to the bed, and take all the food?

"Are you ok? What happenned?" I really need to know the situation right now, so i'll asked for a little bit then. 'ptfff' He's laughing, he's fucking laughing! What the fuck with this old shit?

"How long since you return?" He asked me.

"20 minutes ago" I answer me well, approximately 18 minutes.

"Glenn, I fought the wolf before I came here" I told him. What happened today? Then he showed me a very angry face

"Why don't you wake me up!" He grabbed my shirt. What is he want to die that much?

"Hey, you are sick! How can I let you fight? And I wasn't here when I fought" I can't just let him die. I can't let someone who can't even fight properly to go fight and die without doing that's what human called Emiya Shirou is. He can't let anyone die even a stranger whom he met only once. He's willing to give his life if he can save them.

"Tell me all the detail" This guy never tell me anything, but now asking me a question?

"urgg" he moaned, I think he really need a treatment. Maybe after we can get out of this Weird town. I will take this guy to the hospital even if old man refused to go I'll force him to go.

"Glenn, I've got something that I really want an answer" I really need some explanation right now, for 1 whole day in the other world. Without any information and a fight with suddenly appear demon wolf. Really? I don't think I deserve anything like that.

â€”

"Glenn" i started the conversation by calling his name while eating a hot creamy mushroom soup.

"Well, first off your soup is superb" He's praising on my food. Normally, I should feel happy that someone praise my food, but that's not time to happy for that.

"Glenn" I'm quite angry right now. This guy, he's trying to avoid my question all the time.

"Okay, okay i'll tell you anything you want to know" Finally! He started to explain me something.

"What the hell happened to this place? Why there's a wolf targeting you?" I can't think any other things but this.

"Whoa, slow down kid"

"How can I slow down, A wolf, a fucking wolf outside trying to cut shit out of my guts and yours!" I really angry right now. Why this old man is so irritate to him?

"I can survive anyway, but what about you. Today you almost die" I told him that, because he'll get himself killed someday if he still doing things like this.

"It's not your business"

"Listen well, brat. I'll tell you everything you want to know"

Then he start to tell me everything about this city, a wolf, even himself has almost no memory prior to the theme when this wolf attacked. And he's wandering around this town for 10 years without aging or able to escape the city. And he ask if I could help him or not. He knew that I am a magus, when? I haven't show him any of my magic.

â€”

After, Glenn finished his story. We start to point out that we can do. I don't think we have many option left for us to choose. First, I need to tell him about my magic. Second, I can't just left him like this there should be a way to keep him safe.

"Glenn, How did you know that I'm a magus" I asked him out of curious. How can he know my secret? I don't understand.

"Kid, who you think I am. I am a mage, and I sensed you magic energy, while you were fixing my tv" Ah, I forget about this. My structure graph released a small magic energy, even a small amount every magus can feel it for sure. But this place doesn't use magus as a term for magic users? Mage? I think magic here might be a fantasy like magic.

Maybe? But, this town is being protected by a very high complexity spell. It might be very dangerous to deal with a mastermind.

"You can fight it without any wound on your body. Are you a fighter type?" Well, that's quite true, but my magic is more close to a smithing spell that can use for a fight.

"Yeah, I can create a weapon, reinforce almost anything, and analyze the object from inside out" Yep, These 3 is the most basic thing for studying magecraft back in his home world. Emiya who has no good on studying 5 great elements or a chance to study other magic like bounded field, alchemy or having a chance to summon a familar. But with this 3 basics spell he advance to the point of no one can reach.

"Do you know a spell of smithing?" I don't know what is spell of smithing, but if it is a weapon creation spell then, yes. "Trace On" I traced E-rank noble phantasm and placed it in front of Glenn face.

"This is my original technique called it 'Tracing' It's a very specialize form of projection" I really have a conflict inside myself right now. It seems like my brains prefer to use true trace than using a normal tracing, but its to dangerous to use it without thinking about consequence.

"Projection?" He has a very puzzling face right now. Maybe, 'Projection' is a foreign magic in this world? I think i'll tell him a basic use of this magic and then explain him about what i can do next then.

"Projection is a magic that allow you to recreate anything from yours memory. It sounds very useful right?" I told him the basic of this magic. This magic is rather useless compare to reinforcement, but I am an exception for being able to use a projection in real fight.

"Really useful You sure to have a very good magic in disposal" I told him a half truth that all the object I projected other than weapon, is hollow and fragile. But, I think I can play some trick by using Gilgamesh treasury, I can't not project other thing but a weapons by using normal projection. But I have a 'True Trace' to bring all Gilgamesh treasury outside, the variety of what I can use, an armor that I already redesigned, a build-in golden kitchen, a potion that can heal anything, and even a flying jet 'Vimana'. It's more than enough for me.

"I can also fight in close-combat, and long range with this magic" I saw his smile, I think he already came up with some weird plan.

"Shirou, The mastermind is targeting me. So, the wolf will come after me tomorrow " What? I can't register the old man's words. I don't know what happen before he came home, but Tomorrow? It's to fast. I can't plan any plan to use as a counter measure against the enemies.

"Before, I fainted a shadow came inside, it told me that tomorrow is the final day "

"Why don't you tell me before" I asked him

"Because, I don't know what you can do" The old man answer is a cold word. It's not his fault for thinking like this

"Shirou, I need you to use me as a decoy" His word reached my ears. What? Is he an idiot? He can't even move his arms and legs properly, and now he's trying to go outside and serve himself into their enemy mouth.

"The plan is you'll snipe it from afar, while I'm scouting" He has a plan to use himself as a decoy. It's a very good plan, but it has a very high risk, low return. And how can I protect him? This is absurd. He isn't value his very own life. I can't let him go like this.

"No" This can't be accept.

"Why!" He yelled, is he a kid? Or maybe because of his hatred to the wolf clouded his judgment.

"I can't let someone dies" I reply him without thinking. I can't let him die. I can save him.

"I don't care about my fucking life! All I need is to kill that shit!" What is that idiocy? Is he really want to die that much? If he lost his life here, it's ended.

"But then what? Die like a dog? You can't even move your legs properly." I'm trying to keep my voice down not to yell at him.

"Then reinforce me, You can boost human physical ability right? Then put it one me" Putting a reinforcement on him, it might help but it's only a short terms solution. The way to help him is to kill the mastermind of this mess.

"Even, If I could. You have a bigger chance to die than survive" No better solution than this. His body is dying.

"If you die, then you can't be saved" It's an inevitable truth.

"This is how I can be saved! I need to atone for my sin! I survived! Everyone died but me! I can't live with this reality" Something hits me hard. I know why he's so irritating to me. He's me. Emiya Shirou, who's always cursing himself for survive alone. He could have save other on who stuck on fire. He has to save someone, that's his salvation, but for him is to kill his enemy and free himself from this cycle.

"I don't have time left" His word register to my ears. I can understand that statement, his body is dying. I performed a structure analysis on his body when I was helping him. It's something like ALS, but it's on his soul. I don't want him to die, but I can't ignore this either.

"Fine, but i'll go with you" This is the only way that I can protect him. I need to keep him alive at least till I kill the mastermind, he can't be saved, even if they could escape from this town he'll die anyway.

"Fine, We will go out tomorrow 10 am, and better to be ready" He told me and then slowly walk away from the table.

"Tomorrow, huh?" It's only 2 days since he has been here. I have to keep that guy alive, even a small time they've spend together. He can't let old man to die without salvation. Emiya Shirou made up his mind. He won't let the old man die, he'll save him. But he never known that this is the last time he talked to the old man.

Glenn POV

I'm walking in the dark, my sight is almost gone. I can't see, no a small light. I still have a chance. Tomorrow is the end.

"Urgg" A small moan from his mouth. His chest is burning. It's like being pierce with a hundred needles. ' ' A blank in his brain. He can't grab the concept of time anymore. How long has he walked? ' ' A sense of hearing is gone to.

"I can't disappear like this" A hand clinging on the wall.

"I can't disappear like this" A legs dragging his trembling body forward

"I have to live at least only one more day" He gritted his teeth.

A darkness around him is emerging a wolf like shadow is coming.

'â–„â–…â–‚â–„â–…â–…â–…â–„â–„â–…' A wolf is walking slowly on the back of deaf man.

'â–„â–…â–‚â–„â–…â–…â–…' A small roaring approach his back, but without notice

'â–„â–…â–‚â–„â–„â–…â–‚â–„â–…' That night 'Glenn' is no more. But before his end. A small word came out from his mouth.

"Shirou, everything is up to you now."

The abyss emerged. A wolf has return from its long slumber.

â€”

â–…â–… POV

"It's fine" A man with a silvery hair is talking to It

'â–…â–…' It answered his kindness by letting out a small roar.

"I think it will take a little bit more time, but right now there's an abnormal factor in our plan now" Its master chuckle

"We'll finished our plan tomorrow" Its master told it.

"My â–…â–… you will completely return after we finished our plan" Its body is ready to fight. It will kill the obstacle and devour it.

"Calm down" Its master patted on its head. Its body relaxed.

"Rest well my â–…â–…" Master told it to sleep. Its body's starting to dematerialize and fusion with master.

"I shall go, and finished our plan" It can't hear what master said, but it knew that it regained what it lost.

â€”

â–…â–… POV

"Hmph" an obstacle, but how can little rat bypasses his divine dimension. I think, i have to narrow a potential threats down for a little bit. A fellow gods? No, It impossible, they have no reason to do anything to ruin his plan. A god slayers? There's only 7 in this world, none of them is here, no news of 8th is being born either.

"Or maybe that little rat has an absurd amount of luck, and accidentally breakthrough his barrier"

Too many possibilities, He can't afford to lost anymore time.

"I don't care who you are, but i'll finished you off by myself" An evil grin spread through his face.
